TO : basel@example.com SUBJECT: shopping

Hi Basel,

Last weekend we went shopping. We drove to a shopping centre on the other side of Cairo. A lot of people go to the shopping centre because you can do all your shopping in one place. There are more than 600 shops, a big supermarket and three hotels! I wore good walking shoes because the shopping centre is very big.

I needed a new T-shirt, so my mother and I went to a lot of 1 .My mother and sister then went to the 2 to buy food. My father, my brother and 1 looked at tablets and laptops in a 3 We bought a cake from a4 and some medicine from a 5 We met my mother and sister and we bought my mother some flowers from the 6 .We didn't go home for lunch, we ate in the shopping centre. The restaurants sold a lot of different kinds of food. In the evening, we saw a beautiful water show with lights and music. Did you have a good weekend? Where did you go and what did you do? Best wishes, Tarek

What do you like about where you live?

I live in Cairo and I love city life! Some people think that cities are too noisy. I agree! Cairo is noisier than the countryside and the roads are too busy. there are too many cars and the air is too polluted. But I prefer city life because it's always exciting! There's a lot to do and see here. My grandparents live on farm. When I visit them, I think the countryside is too quiet. Their village isn't exciting enough, but they say, "We're too old for the big city now!"

Salma: I live in a village. I agree with Tarek: the countryside is quieter and that's why I like it! I visited Cairo last year, but I was happy to return home. The city is too big. In Cairo, there are more than 18 million people. In the village, life is slower. People are friendlier and everything is more beautiful. There aren't enough green areas in the city, but there are a lot of fields and trees around my village. The air is cleaner. My village is quiet and there aren't enough shops, but it's more relaxing than the city.

Egyptian music

Music was an important part of life in Egypt long ago, and it is still important today. Different parts of the country have different musical traditions and instruments.

Sawahli music comes from the north of Egypt. A favourite instrument in this kind of music is the simsimiya. It is similar to a guitar.

In the deserts of Sinai, many people play the shabbaba, a kind of flute.

People from Upper Egypt often play traditional music called Saidi. This music is very popular at weddings and special celebrations.

Traditional instruments in Saidi music include the rebaba, a kind of violin, and a drum called tabla baladi.

Salma	:	What do you think about the guitar, Dad?
Salma's father	:	I like the guitar, but I prefer the oud. Do you like the drum?
Salma	;	No, I don't like the drum.
Salma's father		I like it. I also like the violin.
Salma	:	Yes, I like the violin. It's better than the clarinet. I really don't like the clarinet.
Salma's father	:	I disagree. I think clarinet music is very beautiful. But I really don't like trumpet. It's too noisy.
Salma	:	I don't mind the trumpet but I love the flute.
Salma's father	:	I like flute but I prefer the piano. It's my favourite instrument.
Salma	:	I don't mind the piano. The oud is my favourite instrument. The piano is yours.

ملخص القصة The summary of chapter 4

Santiago sailed home with the skeleton behind the boat. That night, more sharks came and swam around the boat, but they didn't stay because the marlin was only a skeleton. The small boat sailed fast, and soon the old man saw the lights of the houses far away.

He was exhausted. "A bed is my friend " he said. When he got home, it was night. People didn't see him. Manolin and all the fishermen were sleeping. He left the skeleton of the fish by the boat and started to walk to his house. He walked very slowly because he was so tired. It took him a long time. When he got home, he drank some water and went to bed.

The next day, Manolin saw Santiago's boat. He visited the old man's house. When he saw the old man and his cut hand, he was very sad. Manolin went to the café to get some coffee for him. The old man was happy to see the boy and they talked. Manolin wanted to go fishing with the old man again. '' lie down, old man, and I will bring you a clean shirt and something to eat'' said Manolin. He wanted to look after the old man. The old man smiled and soon he was sleeping. The fishermen saw the skeleton of the marlin by Santiago's boat and they couldn't believe its enormous size. They felt sad for the old man, but they respected him because he was always patient and hard working.
